Russell & Cherie Waddy

YACHTING HOLIDAYS · SF250427

Seven days, port to port.

Leave Malta's walled capital, trace the coast of Sicily, then follow the Peloponnese north to Athens' historic port. One day is left to the wind.

SUN · 25
APRIL

Valletta, Malta

Board at the Grand Harbour. The walled capital of the Knights of St John is a World Heritage city.

MON · 26
APRIL

Syracuse, Sicily

Ancient ruins, baroque piazzas and the old island district of Ortygia, with lanes leading down to the sea.

TUE · 27
APRIL

At sea

A day under sail. Take in the open deck, the pools, or a turn at the wheel.

WED · 28
APRIL

Pilos, Greece

Navarino Bay, site of the 1827 naval battle linked to Greek independence.

THU · 29
APRIL

Monemvasia, Greece

Pass through a single gate into a Byzantine fortified town, tucked against its famous rock.

FRI · 30
APRIL

Nafplio, Greece

Venetian houses sit beneath the Palamidi fortress; the remarkable ruins of Mycenae lie inland.

SAT · 1
MAY

Piraeus (Athens), Greece

Arrive after breakfast. The port is about 15 kilometres from the Acropolis.

At the Captain's discretion: wind, weather and local conditions may require changes to ports or timing. Shore excursions are optional and booked separately.

One fare, clearly set out.

Per person, twin share. Each package combines three Valletta hotel nights with a six-night Star Flyer cabin. Early-bird rates close 31 December 2026, or sooner if cabins sell.
